1. (i) A coin has probability 0.8 of giving heads on any flip. The results of different flips are independent. The coin was flipped three times and you are given that at least one head appeared. Given this, find the (conditional) probability that a head appeared on all three flips? [6]